I grant a non-exclusive right to the Law Society of Ontario (the "LSO") to record, transcribe, reproduce, publish, transmit, broadcast and distribute my presentation (the "Presentation"), in whole or in part, in any and all media, to its licensees and others interested in the topics covered, for continuing professional development and other educational purposes (the "Purposes").

I also grant a non-exclusive right to the LSO to reproduce, publish, transmit, broadcast and distribute the written materials submitted in connection with the Presentation, including any accompanying power-point presentations (the "Materials"), in whole or in part, in any and all media, to its licensees and others interested in the topics covered, for the Purposes.

I grant permission to the LSO to edit the Presentation and the Materials, provided that care is taken to preserve their meaning, to render the Presentation and Materials into accessible formats, to combine the Presentation and Materials with other content to form one or more compilations, and to charge a fee to individuals for access to the Presentation and/or Materials without payment to me.

I grant to the LSO permission to use my name and voice, biography, videotaped image and photograph, in connection with the Presentation and the Materials.

I understand that the above-noted activities of the LSO may be carried out by it alone, or by subcontract or joint venture with other legal and professional organizations or other entities.

I retain copyright in the underlying content of the Presentation and Materials. I warrant that the LSO's exercise of the rights granted herein will not infringe the rights of others. I warrant that I have obtained any written consent(s) necessary to enable me to grant the rights herein, such as consents to include any personal information of third parties or consents to use copyrighted content that is not original to me, in accordance with the Purposes. I further warrant that the Presentation and Materials are not libelous and do not breach any privilege or confidence and that the Materials conform with WCAG 2.0 Level AA requirements.
