General Min Aung Hlaing:

Re: Arrest and detention of lawyers Thein Hlaing Tun and Ayeyar Lin Htut in Myanmar

I write on behalf of the Law Society of Ontario to voice our grave concern over the recent reports regarding the arrest and detention of lawyers Thein Hlaing Tun and Ayeyar Lin Htut. When reports of serious issues of injustice to legal professionals and the judiciary come to our attention, we speak out.

The Law Society of Ontario continues to be deeply troubled by the numerous reports regarding the arrest and detention of lawyers and law students that have taken place since the military junta overrode the November 2020 election results and assumed power following a widely reported coup on February 1, 2021. Ever since the Myanmar military illegally seized power from all three branches of government, there have been protests and unrest throughout the country. In response, the military junta has reacted with violence against Myanmar citizens, resulting in the deaths of 845 people. Over 4500 people continue to be detained.

In our previous letter, dated March 18, 2021, we referenced several troubling legislative changes made by the junta that violate the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights. It now appears those amendments are being used to target lawyers and prevent them from defending their clients. On May 24, lawyer Thein Hlaing Tun was arrested while exiting the courthouse after representing his client Dr. Myo Aung, the chairman of the Nay Pyi Taw council, in a proceeding. On May 27, lawyer Ayeyar Lin Htut was arrested at the Hinthada District Court. In both cases the lawyers were charged under section 505 of the penal code, one of the new sections added by the junta. This section of the code makes it an offense to speak out against the junta, or call the coup that led to the junta seizing power illegitimate. By directly targeting lawyers, and arresting them immediately after representing their clients in court, the junta is making a direct attack on rule of law and violating several United Nations articles on the role of lawyers.

In light of these circumstances, the Law Society urges you to demand that the military junta comply with Myanmar's obligations under international human rights laws, including the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights and The Basic Principles on the Role of Lawyers.

Article 16 of The Basic Principles of the Role of Lawyers states:

Governments shall ensure that lawyers (a) are able to perform all of their professional functions without intimidation, hindrance, harassment or improper interference; (b) are able to travel and to consult with their clients freely both within their own country and abroad; and (c) shall not suffer, or be threatened with, prosecution or administrative, economic or other sanctions for any action taken in accordance with recognized professional duties, standards and ethics.

Article 18 states:

Lawyers shall not be identified with their clients or their clients' causes as a result of discharging their functions.

Article 20 states:

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Furthermore, Article 23 states:

Lawyers like other citizens are entitled to freedom of expression, belief, association, and assembly. In particular, they shall have the right to take part in public discussion of matters concerning the law, the administration of justice and the promotion and protection of human rights and to join or form local, national or international organizations and attend their meetings, without suffering professional restrictions by reason of their lawful action or their membership in a lawful organization. In exercising these rights, lawyers shall always conduct themselves in accordance with the law and the recognized standards and ethics of the legal profession.

The Law Society urges Myanmar's military junta to:

- a. immediately and unconditionally release Thein Hlaing Tun and Ayeyar Lin Htut, as well as all lawyers, paralegals, judges, law students and human rights defenders who have been detained for peacefully protesting and exercising their professional duties since the coup on February 1, 2021;
- b. immediately and unconditionally withdraw all charges against Thein Hlaing Tun and Ayeyar Lin Htut, as well as all lawyers, paralegals, judges, law students and human rights defenders who have been detained for peacefully protesting and exercising their professional duties since the coup on February 1, 2021;

- c. put an end to all acts of harassment against all lawyers, paralegals, judges, law students and human rights defenders in Myanmar;
- d. ensure that all lawyers, paralegals, judges, law students and human rights defenders in Myanmar can carry out their professional duties and activities without fear of reprisals, physical violence, or other human rights violations; and
- e. ensure in all circumstances respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in accordance with international human rights standards and international instruments.

Yours truly,

Teresa Donnelly
Treasurer
