She attended Osgoode Hall Law School and was called to the Bar of Ontario on September 15th, 1949. She married David Moffatt Thomson (1921-1988) in 1949, and together they opened a legal practice in Lindsay, Ontario. In January of 1974, David Thomson was appointed a County Court judge in Windsor, Ontario. Thelma Thomson has been active in several community organizations including the Jury Service for Women Committee, the Ross Memorial Hospital (Lindsay), the Lindsay Kinsmen Boys Band, the Lindsay Art Guild, the Lady Hughes Chapter of the I.O.D.E., and has been involved with both the provincial and federal Liberal parties.

Scope and Content
Fonds consists of records created and accumulated by Thelma Kerr Thomson. Records in the fonds relate to her time as a student at the University of Toronto, her call to the Bar and legal career (and to a lesser extent, the legal career of her husband, David Moffatt Thomson), and her personal life. Included in the fonds are digital copies of photographs, and photocopies of a scrapbook, press clippings, correspondence, ephemera and other textual material. The originals of the records range in date from 1942 to 2005.

Provenance
In March of 2007, Thelma Thomson met with Sophia Sperdakos (secretary to the Heritage Committee) to discuss her legal career and the possibility of her writing her memoirs. At the meeting, Thomson loaned the records in this fonds to the Law Society of Upper Canada Archives so copies could be produced. Staff of the Archives photocopied the records and scanned the photographs.
