The candidate must submit the fully completed form, with applicable supporting documentation, as an attachment through the candidate’s online account. The candidate must ensure that each field is completed and that the guarantor or referee has signed and dated both this form and the copies of the supporting documents. 2. I have attached a copy of the legal document(s) reflecting my name change. Where this document is not in English or French, a translation by a translator certified by the Association of Translators and Interpreters of Ontario is also attached.
3. The declaration of the guarantor or referee has been signed by a guarantor or referee who (a) meets the Law Society of Ontario’s posted requirements; and (b) has known me in my personal or professional life both under my prior full legal name and under my current full legal name. Please see the “Completing the Lawyer Licensing Process Application” or the “Completing the Paralegal Licensing Process Application” section of the website for information on acceptable guarantors/referees and additional requirements for referees.
