

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD) REQUIREMENT

Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content Annual Declaration (Declaration)

Section 1: Provider Information

Organization Name:

Contact Name and Title:

Contact Phone: Contact Email:

There has been no change to this information since the last Annual Declaration.

NOTE: Providers should promptly provide the Law Society with their updated contact name and information if these change during the year.

Accredited Providers of Professionalism Content must file a Declaration by January 15 of each year, to demonstrate compliance with the obligations during the previous calendar year in order to maintain Accredited Provider status.

Accredited Providers who fail to submit a Declaration to the CPD Accreditation Team within fifteen (15) days of this deadline will be deemed not in compliance with their obligations and their Accredited Provider status will be revoked. If status is revoked, the provider will have an opportunity to re-apply one year after the date of revocation.

Accredited Providers that choose to discontinue their Accredited Provider status must submit written notification to the Law Society's CPD Accreditation Team. Providers who are no longer Accredited Providers will be required to follow the Law Society's process for accreditation of individual programs and other educational activities.
