

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD) ACCREDITATION Application for Re-accreditation — Program (Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Professionalism Content Only)

Application Instructions

Review the Accreditation Criteria for Professionalism Hours webpage for information about the topics that qualify for Equality, Diversity and Inclusion ("EDI") professionalism accreditation.

Use this Application form if you are an educational provider or licensee whose program was accredited by the Law Society for Professionalism Hours prior to December 31, 2017 and you wish to request that the program be re-accredited to take into account the part or parts of the program that focus on equality, diversity and inclusion topics.

Submit a copy of this Application form by email to cpdacc@lso.ca. The original Application for Accreditation – Program (Professionalism Content) and all supporting documentation must be included with your Application form.

Complete a separate Application for each program re-accreditation request.

Re-Accreditation Process

The Law Society deals with a high volume of Applications and the standard processing time for re-accreditation applications is approximately 15 business days of receipt of the Application. Incomplete Applications may require additional processing time.

Applications for re-accreditation of Professionalism Hours may be submitted at any time prior to or following the program. Applications must be completed and submitted by no later than 30 days prior to the program date in order to facilitate re-accreditation in advance of the delivery of the program.

Applicants must not indicate in their promotional materials or agenda that a program is eligible for EDI Hours (including that an application for accreditation or re-accreditation has been submitted or that accreditation is pending) until they have received a Notice of Accreditation or Re-Accreditation from the Law Society for the program.
