TREASURER'S MESSAGE

It is a great honour to welcome all of you today to what is a rare occasion at Osgoode Hall. The conferring of an honorary Doctor of Laws degree by the Law Society is always an auspicious moment, conferring honour on both the recipient and the Law Society.

We are extremely privileged to confer such an honour on a person who is truly worthy of our unreserved praise and admiration. The Most Reverend Archbishop Desmond Tutu has by his words and deeds brought light to one of humanity's great tragedies. He has opened the hearts and minds of his fellow citizens in South Africa as well as people around the world to the horrors of apartheid and racial discrimination. He has taught us the true possibilities of peace and the ever important power of forgiveness.

It is an honour and a blessing to welcome the Archbishop in our midst. This is a great moment for the legal profession, the people of Ontario and each one of us individually.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Robert P. Armstrong". The signature is fluid and elegant, with a prominent initial "R" and a long, sweeping tail on the "g".
