The Law Society of Upper Canada expresses grave concern about the murder of lawyer Mia Mascariñas-Green in the Philippines

Toronto, ON — The Law Society of Upper Canada expresses grave concern about the murder of lawyer Mia Mascariñas-Green in the Philippines.

Mia Mascariñas-Green was a public interest lawyer who was known for her work and advocacy on behalf of women, children, farmers, fisherfolk and the environment. She often took on cases and represented clients pro bono.

According to reports, on February 15, 2017, Mia Mascariñas-Green was gunned down by four men on motorcycles while driving home with her three children and a nanny. Although her children and their nanny were unharmed, Mia Mascariñas-Green was pronounced dead at the hospital.

Police believe that the assassination is tied to Mia Mascariñas-Green's legal work, as she was working on a contentious land dispute case at the time of her death.

The Law Society is deeply troubled by these reports. We strongly believe that lawyers should be able to carry out their professional duties and activities without fear for their lives, liberty and security.

The Law Society of Upper Canada urges the Government of the Philippines to comply with the Philippines' obligations under international human rights laws, including the United Nations' Basic Principles on the Role of Lawyers.

Article 16 of the Basic Principles on the Role of Lawyers states:

Governments shall ensure that lawyers (a) are able to perform all of their professional functions without intimidation, hindrance, harassment or improper interference; (b) are able to travel and to consult with their clients freely both within their own country and abroad; and (c) shall not suffer, or be threatened with, prosecution or administrative, economics or other sanctions for any action taken in accordance with recognized professional duties, standards and ethics.

Article 17 states:

Where the security of lawyers is threatened as a result of discharging their functions, they shall be adequately safeguarded by the authorities.

Article 18 states:

Lawyers shall not be identified with their clients or their clients' causes as a result of discharging their functions.

The Law Society urges the Government of the Philippines to:

- a. immediately conduct a fair, impartial and independent investigation into the murder of Mia Mascariñas-Green in order to identify all those responsible, bring them to trial and apply to them civil, penal and/or administrative sanctions provided by law;
- b. put an end to all acts of harassment and violence against lawyers and human rights defenders in the Philippines;
- c. guarantee in all circumstances the physical and psychological integrity of all lawyers and human rights defenders in the Philippines;
- d. ensure that all lawyers in the Philippines can carry out their professional duties and activities without fear of reprisals, physical violence or other human rights violations; and
- e. ensure in all circumstances respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in accordance with international human rights standards and international instruments.
