Biographical/Sketch/Administrative History

The County of York Law Association was incorporated on 30 December 1885 with 207 charter members. Governed by a board of trustees, the purpose of the Association was "the formation and support of a law library for the use of its members to be kept and maintained in the courthouse in the said City of Toronto and to provide for the general interest of the profession and good feeling and harmony among members". The Association changed its name to the Metropolitan Toronto Lawyers Association in 1996. The name of the Association changed again in 2004 to the Toronto Lawyers Association.
