

LAW SOCIETY OF ONTARIOComplaint Form*Information Sheet*What types of complaints will the Law Society deal with?

As the regulator of the legal professions in Ontario, we receive and respond to written complaints about lawyers and paralegals licensed by the Law Society. We also respond to information about unlicensed practitioners who are providing legal services or practising law.

We deal with a range of professional conduct matters. Examples include delay, failure to reply to communications, rude and discriminatory behaviour, not accounting for money or improperly handling it, and not reporting on a transaction.

We cannot assist with every kind of complaint; there are some things we do not have the legal authority to deal with.

After we review your Complaint Form, we will let you know if we are able to help.

Here is some information about other resources you can consider even if the Law Society is not able to help you.

- If you need legal services, you need to see a lawyer or licensed paralegal.
- If you believe the fees charged by your lawyer were too high, contact the Assessment Office of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice. If you believe the fees charged by your paralegal were too high, you may wish to contact the Small Claims Court. (Currently the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court is limited to claims of $35,000 or less.)
- In addition to making a complaint to the Law Society you may also wish to explore the availability of other options, such as the civil and/or criminal justice system. If you believe that the lawyer or paralegal's conduct may constitute a criminal offence, please consider reporting it to the police.

Please note that the Law Society cannot pay you money or make a lawyer or paralegal pay you money because of a lawyer or paralegal's mistake. If you believe a lawyer or paralegal has made a mistake, you will have to deal directly with him or her or you may have to sue the lawyer or paralegal. You may wish to seek legal advice about your options.

For more information, visit the 'Public Resources' section of the Law Society website, at www.lso.ca.

Confidentiality

In fairness to the lawyer or paralegal you are complaining about, we will share with them some or all of the information you give us. We may give copies of documents received from you or any other person to the lawyer or paralegal you are complaining about. We may also need to share personal information (such as names, addresses and telephone numbers) with the lawyer or paralegal.

Complaints and investigations are otherwise confidential unless the Law Society has begun regulatory proceedings.

What you need to do

- Complete and sign the Complaint Form.
- Attach copies of any documents that relate to your complaint. Send us any documents that you think will help us understand your complaint (and direct us to the parts that you think are important). Note that we may not be able to access documents that are stored in a cloud and accessed online.
- Send the completed Complaint Form with copies of relevant documents (do not send originals) to:

Law Society of Ontario
Osgoode Hall, 130 Queen Street West
Toronto ON M5H 2N6
Attention: Complaints & Compliance

What happens next?

We will promptly send you a letter to let you know we received your complaint. Your complaint is assigned a file number, which will be indicated in the letter.

Each complaint will be carefully reviewed and assessed. For information about our processes, visit our website: www.iso.ca/complaints.

If we cannot help with a complaint or deal with it as a professional conduct matter, we will let you know.

We will keep you informed about the status of your complaint.

Our commitment to a respectful environment

The Law Society is committed to communicating with you in a respectful, professional and civil manner. Similarly, we expect the same courtesy from others.

We understand that the complaint process and the circumstances that give rise to complaints can be stressful. However, we will not accept racist, discriminatory or harassing behaviour or profane communications.

The Law Society is required by law to protect staff from harassing, discriminatory and threatening behaviour. Please note that repeated behaviour of this kind will result in the Law Society restricting communications or no longer communicating with you beyond advising you of the outcome of your complaint.

Questions?

If you have any questions about how to file your complaint, please call the Client Service Centre at 416-947-3310 or 1-800-268-7568. Please note we cannot discuss your personal situation until you have provided your Complaint Form to us.

With very limited exceptions, you must bring your complaint to us within three years of the date the problem occurred or the date that you became aware of it.
