Dear Participants of Access to Justice Week:

On behalf of the Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, I am pleased to add my support to Ontario's Access to Justice Week, to be held from October 25-29, 2021. The power of collaboration has realized an impressive line-up of events and learning opportunities, which are a testament to the deep commitment and leadership of stakeholders across the justice sector and beyond.

As Access to Justice Week is hosted virtually again this year, meaningful conversations on important access to justice issues will be facilitated across Ontario and across the country, and will focus on inclusive justice, empowering people, and building community. The breadth of topics addressed in this year's schedule of events reflects the wide range of challenges that many people face as they try to navigate the justice system. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss the actions that can be taken to make the justice system accessible for all.

I wish you an excellent week as you share your challenges and what you have learned. I applaud your efforts for raising awareness of the importance of advancing people-focused access to justice.

Sincerely,

A. François Daigle (he/him)
